

YAMAMOTO Neoprene made suit in the Film “BATMAN BIGINS”

It must be amazingly interesting to know that the suit that the Batman's is wearing at the film “BATMAN BIGINS” newly released since June this year in the United States is made of YAMAMOTO's wetsuit material !

It is a piece of work created as the result of the examination since the World's biggest Sporting Goods show “ISPO Summer 2003” held in Munich, Germany, with the technology to improve lightness and wearability.

The material for the batman suit has been selected with the concept of “as much Soft, Pliable and Strong as the human body” to allow the performer to treat it like a leotard almost.

Enjoy “BATMAN BIGINS” with an interest also to BATMAN's consume.
